For the week of September 13, 2020

GETTING TO KNOW ME:

- If you could turn any book you've read into a movie, which book would you choose?

REVIEW:

What was something that stuck out to you from this week's message?

DIGGING DEEPER:

Jeff Vines, this year's president of the International Conference on Missions (ICOM), is speaking this weekend. He has a challenging message for us, one that should force us to look at the heart of the cross and remind us that our goal as believers is not to simply try and be good but to radically fall in love with Jesus.

Read: Proverbs 30:7-9

1. Do you see any connection between affluence and a decline in Christianity? (Explain)
  - a. Why do you think it is dangerous for Christianity to become a place for respectable people to try and be good?
2. What is the importance of recognizing that the center of Christianity has shifted away from Europe and North America?

a. How should this affect the way you live your life?

3. Have you ever thought about Christianity as a radical faith? (Why/Why not)

a. How might things change if believers thought they had been called to a radical way of life?

4. When experiencing a trial, what comes from asking God what He is trying to teach you rather than praying for the trial to end?

a. Do you believe Christians think of trials as ways to grow in their faith or frustrations that get in the way of their life?

5. How can Jesus' death on the cross comfort us in times of trial?

a. How can we take that comfort and then share it with others going through trials?

6. How would you explain falling in love with Jesus?

ONE LIFE:

- How can you show your one life Jesus this week?

APPLICATION

1. How does Jesus make a difference in your life?
2. Do you feel, know and experience Jesus?
3. If someone followed you Monday–Friday and saw how you lived, would you show them Jesus?
